

EASTER

Jesus is the true vine; the father prunes that we may bear much fruit

Jesus is the true vine, the continuation of the true Israel, and we – his followers – are the vine’s branches: God’s chosen people. Jesus warns that leaving the vine will lead to aridity and diminishment. To produce lasting and healthy fruit the branches must remain in the vine, intimately connected to Jesus and one another. Together, we must be prepared to be pruned and reshaped, submitting to the will of our Father, the Vine Grower, who longs to fulfil our heart’s desires.
