THIRD SUNDAY BEFORE ADVENT

6 NOVEMBER 2022

This strange passage is another example of the conflicts Jesus found himself in with the religious authorities of the day. Since the Sadducees did not believe in the resurrection themselves, the question they ask is clearly set up to trick Jesus. Jesus is smarter than they are, and has an answer for them: he distinguishes between this age and the age to come. This is all happening after the entry into Jerusalem, just before his trial, crucifixion and resurrection: God's future bringing transformation as the new age begins in the most unlikely of ways.
