

BAPTISM OF CHRIST

And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. Matthew 3.16

Regular events in Deddington Church:

Tuesday and Thursday 5:30pm – Food waste table

Thursday 9:30am-12pm – Squiggles and Wriggles

Friday 10am-12pm – Katharine House coffee morning

Two Church Wardens Needed: Deddington is currently without Church Wardens and we are seeking some committed people to consider whether they may be called to this vital role. Please give this careful thought and if you think you might be able to help, come and chat with Revd Nick to find out more and explore the possibility, without obligation!

This Sunday – Blessing of new hymn books: We are excited to launch our new hymn books this week! Thank you to everyone who sponsored copies in memory of someone special; it is much appreciated and has enabled us to raise the funds needed. We will be blessing all the books in today's service as we put them into use and there will be an opportunity after the service to view the dedicated books.

Views sought on new Bishop of Oxford: The Diocese are seeking views across parishes and communities as they start the process of appointing a new Bishop of Oxford. A short, anonymous survey has been set up at: <https://oxford.anglican.org/consultation>. It should take less than 10 minutes to complete and you are encouraged to respond. The survey is open until 4th February (5pm). Hard copies of the questions are available at the back of church. If you complete a hard copy, please leave your response in the envelope on the back table and we will arrange for them to be returned to the Diocese.

ECO CHURCH It's Veganuary. A vegan diet could be the 'biggest single way' to reduce your environmental impact, Oxford researchers have said. Cutting meat and dairy from your diet can reduce your footprint from food by 73%. To start with, maybe introduce some meat- and dairy-free days into your week. See <https://veganuary.com/>
