TRINITY 2

26 JUNE 2022

The disciples want to burn down the homes of those who don't receive Jesus. In another village, he is received, but the people have all sorts of reasonable excuses for not following. Jesus persists: 'follow me,' he keeps on saying. And even to the one person in this story who does promise to follow, Jesus enigmatically responds that they are heading to a place where there is no rest. Not yet. Not receiving Jesus, or having plausible and sensible reasons why we cannot follow too far, are just as evident today. Jesus, however, keeps on calling.
