BENEFACTICE WORSHIP AND NEWS

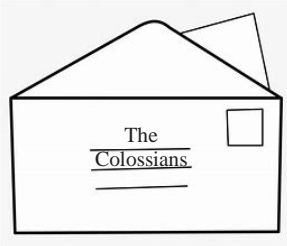

St Peter and St Paul, Deddington

St Michael and St John, Barford

St John the Evangelist Hempton

Paul joyfully gives thanks for the Colossians, fellow saints

Colossians 1.1-14

We say 'Thank you' to Ben who has been helping out in Deddington church as part of his Duke of Edinburgh Award service. Next Sunday will be Ben's last day with us as a volunteer, so we wish him well for the future. Ben has helped set up the altars, assisted with refreshments and washing up afterwards, moved furniture, moved the piano, helped to build a boat and to dismantle and repack a tent as part of his duties!

Tony's dahlias and plants

Very many thanks to everyone who bought dahlias and the other plants we had to sell at The Old Post Office. I hope they are still growing well! We raised just over £900 that was shared between The Barford Churches and FareShare. Tony Elvidge

10 JULY 2022

Lawyers are trained to ask good questions. First a general one: 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Then something more specific: 'who is my neighbour?' Jesus' beautiful, shocking story about how prejudice, fear and status lead many of us to shun our neighbour is as relevant today as it was then. The hero of this story is not a Jew but a Samaritan, who was, for the Jews, a heretic and an outcast. The person in need is our neighbour. Whoever they are. And the person we may fear and exclude is neighbour to us. RSCM, Sunday by Sunday
