

TRINITY

God promises the Israelites a land
if they keep his commandments.

Deuteronomy 30.15-20

TODAY – at 3 O'clock we have our family service which will be focussing on God's Wonderful world and how we can enjoy it and look after it, beginning with our church and churchyard.

At 6pm there will be Choral Evensong. We welcome back the choir after their brief holiday. Do come along and be inspired by the music of this beautiful service.

MANY THANKS – to all who helped with the re-ordering the church after the parish show yesterday.

This Tuesday 6th September from 9.15am there will be a big post parish show clean up party to ready the church for the autumn.

Next Saturday – 10 September

Ride and Stride - If you have not already done so you can still contact Sarah Liebrecht 01869 337628/07976 523494 s.liebrecht2@gmail.com or Janet Watts 07825 172600 wattsfamily1997@gmail.com and volunteer to walk, ride or sit and welcome in your home church. It is a lovely way to spend a day and raises funds for both the Oxfordshire Historic Churches Trust and for your church of choice.

In the evening from 6pm the Harvest Supper will take place in Deddington Church. Tickets are £12 for a welcome drink, and a two-course meal.

Sunday 18 September 3-5pm - Afternoon Teas - in Deddington church.

SUNDAY

4 SEPTEMBER 2022

The first church I knew had a half-finished bell tower next to it. When this reading came round, we all cringed. Harder still are Jesus' words about hating family and giving up possessions. Following him feels far too difficult, far too costly. And saying we just need to be prepared to give up everything doesn't make it easier. Only the hardest thing of all, carrying the cross, makes sense: Jesus carrying our sins and failures, and our bearing the cross to the world and showing where mercy and forgiveness are found.
