5-13 November – Poppy Week lighting in Deddington Church

Opening of Deddington Church as a place of warmth and welcome during the cold winter months: Annie announced this initiative on Sunday and has asked for volunteers to provide simple hospitality on Mondays during the winter. This would take the form of: making hot drinks available (and biscuits... maybe cake!), a simple lunch of soup or baked potatoes and of course a team to arrange the church to make the most of the warmth and comfort. If anyone has board games they might loan that would also be good.

ECO CHURCH

Q. What links Deddington Church with Afghanistan, the Central African Republic, Pakistan and Uganda?

A. Each of our 4 toilets is twinned with a latrine in one of these countries. And no, they do not have a picture of our toilets!

TRINITY 17

9 OCTOBER 2022

Jesus' journey of faith is going to lead his followers to places they never imagined going. For here they are all outsiders: ten lepers, looked down upon as unclean by respectable society, yet made clean by Jesus, and a Samaritan (they were rather dodgy in the eyes of the faithful), the only one to thank God, the only one who joins the journey. It is a precursor of the Acts of the Apostles, which tells how the faith leaves its homeland in the Holy Land and spreads into the whole wide world. Who else is to be welcomed in?
