TRINITY 1

19 JUNE 2022

If you have been with someone who is enduring a psychotic episode, you will understand how a pre-modern sensibility would read this as demonic possession. Sufferers are not themselves. Because Jesus had the power to heal, he could; and the story is rendered in terms which people then would understand. We are still discovering, agonisingly slowly, how to help people with acute mental illness. The beneficial improvements made must be gifts of God. Praise be to him for all the gifts of healing, however partial or provisional. And may our response to mental ill-health or disease always be founded in love.
