

TRINITY

Bear one another's burdens; Paul boasts in nothing except Christ Crucified.
Galatians 6: 2, 14

TODAY WE CELEBRATE ST PETER AND ST PAUL as the Patronal Festival in Deddington. Two of our services reflect this, our 3 O'clock informal service and our Choral Evensong at 6pm.

Our morning service is a celebration of St Thomas. It is also a special day for Annie, our Vicar, as she celebrates the 11th anniversary of her ordination.

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELL DONE, ANNIE

The war in Ukraine is not stopping, and neither is the effort to help the people of Ukraine in their hour of need. Fynn Watt and his family and friends continue to deliver much needed supplies to fleeing families, mostly mothers and children. Deddington church continues to host a drop off point for supplies. Fynn is very clear about what is useful and what is not required so please note the information posted on the Living Room window about wanted donations. Continue to pray for Fynn and his team and for the people of Ukraine.

Elsewhere in the world troubles continue, whether war, famine or natural disaster and sometimes all three. We pray for the people of Yemen, Afghanistan, Ethiopia and many other nations suffering at this time. In Deddington Church we pray daily for the world, the Church, our local community and for Christians persecuted for their faith.

3 JULY 2022

Jesus has already sent the twelve to proclaim the good news and now he sends out seventy of his followers as envoys to villages he plans to visit. These representatives of Jesus carry his authority. They heal the sick and cast out demons. They can also pronounce judgement on those who reject their message and the One who sent them. Followers of Jesus are not to delight in power and authority, however. Instead we rejoice because, through Jesus, our names are written in heaven.
